

It is imperative that NJ's Do Not Call list is left in effect. Telemarketers have become increasingly time-consuming, as they will not take no for an answer. Hang up, and they'll call back. If anything, telephone pitches to sell random items and services should be made illegal. Please do whatever it is that needs done to ensure that the Do Not Call List stays in effect.